Luncheon seminar 1

Co-sponsored by Chugai Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd.

12:10~13:10

Chair: Ryo Konno
(Jichi Medical University Saitama Medical Center, Japan)

LS1 Advances in the screening & prevention, and therapy of cervical cancer

Krishnansu S. Tewari
(University of California, Irvine, USA)

Sponsored seminar 1

Co-sponsored by Johnson & Johnson K.K.

13:10~14:10

Chair: Yoshito Terai
(Osaka Medical College, Japan)

SS1 Minimally invasive radical surgery for early invasive cervical carcinoma

Masaaki Andou
(Kurashiki Medical Center, Japan)

Special lectureEpidemiology and biology of HPV

14:10~14:40

Co-Chairs: Yoshiki Mikami
(Department of Diagnostic Pathology, Kumamoto University Hospital, Japan)
Hiroyuki Fujiwara
(Department of OBGYN, Jichi Medical University, Japan, Shin-Yurigaoka General Hospital, Japan)

SL HPV associated clinical problems: The Asian scene

Paul Chan
(Department of Microbiology, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong)

Educational lecture 1Cervical cancer screening and management

14:40~15:00

Chair: Tadao Kobayashi
(Osaka University Graduate School of Medicine, Japan)

EL1 Automated imager cytology screening and HPV tests

Annie N.Y. Cheung

(Department of Pathology, The University of Hong Kong, Queen Mary Hospital, Hong Kong)

Symposium 1Clinical trials of HPV screening

15:00~16:00

Co-Chairs: Yasuo Hirai
(Dokkyo Medical University, Japan)
Catherine Sauvaget
(Screening Group, Prevention and Early Detection Section, International Agency for Research on Cancer, World Health Organization, Lyon, France)

SY1-1 Introduction of HPV testing to improve cervical screening in Japan: A comparison of Japanese and foreign studies

Kazunori Nagasaka
(Teikyo University, Japan)

SY1-2 Cervical cancer screening through a combination of liquid-based cytology and HPV testing in the Oyama area

Hiroyuki Fujiwara
(Department of OBGYN, Jichi Medical University, Japan)

SY1-3 Suggesting ideal strategy of cervical cancer screening in Japan: First report of the Fukui cervical cancer screening study

Tetsuji Kurokawa
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, University of Fukui, Japan)

DiscussionCoffee Break

16:00~16:20

Sponsored seminar 2

Cervical cancer and HPV vaccine

Co-sponsored by MSD K.K.

16:20~17:20

Chair: Ikuo Konishi
(National Hospital Organization Kyoto Medical Center, Japan)

Short Lecture Where are we now: Treatment and prevention of cervical cancer?

Ikuo Konishi
(National Hospital Organization Kyoto Medical Center, Japan)

SS2 The current situation of HPV vaccines in Japan

Takayuki Enomoto
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Niigata University Medical School, Japan)

Symposium 2

HPV vaccine

17:20~18:30

Co-Chairs: Etsuko Miyagi
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Yokohama City University Hospital, Japan)
Ryo Konno
(Jichi Medical University Saitama Medical Center, Japan)

SY2-1 Therapeutic HPV vaccine - Is it clinically useful?

Jong Sup Park
(Catholic University Medical College, Korea)

SY2-2 Long-term effectiveness and immunogenicity of gardasil™ in the Nordic countries

Suzanne M. Garland
(The Royal Women's Hospital, University of Melbourne, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Australia)

SY2-3 Impact and effectiveness of the quadrivalent human papillomavirus vaccine: A systematic review of ten years of real-world experience

Suzanne M. Garland
(The Royal Women's Hospital, University of Melbourne, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Australia)

Discussion

Room 2 (503BC)

Laparoscopic suturing seminar (Hands on)

10:00~12:00

LSS Intra-corporeal knot tying, and holding kneedle

Kenro Chikazawa

(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Jichi Medical University, Saitama Medical Center, Japan)

Oral session 1

Head and neck cancer

14:40~15:10

Co-Chairs: Takanori Hama
(The Jikei University School of Medicine, Japan)

Muneyuki Masuda
(National Kyushu Cancer Center, Japan)

O-01 HPV-related squamous cell carcinoma of the lacrimal sac: A case successfully treated with chemo-radiation therapy

Takashi Toshiyasu

(The Cancer Institute Hospital of JFCR, Radiation Oncology, Japan)

O-02 Evaluation of oropharyngeal cancer according to the 8th edition of AJCC TNM staging system

Ichiro Ota

(Nara Medical University, Japan)

O-03 Serological and molecular detection of HPV infections of a cohort of oral and oropharyngeal cancer patients in Sri Lanka

A.I. Wathupola

(Department of Zoology and Environment Sciences, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka)

Oral session 2

Health education and society

15:10~16:00

Chair: Kiyoko Kato
(Kyushu University, Japan)

O-15 Prevalence of cervical cancer and precancer lesion (VIA positive) along with cryotherapy as treatment for VIA positive on women joining "See-and-Treat Program" female cancer program Faculty of Medicine Universitas Indonesia from 2004-2016 in Jakarta-Indonesia

Laila Nuranna

(Division of Gynecologic Oncology Department of Obstetric and Gynecology Cipto Mangunkusumo Hospital Jakarta, Indonesia)

[Day 2] October 19 (Thurs)

Room 1 (501AB)

Educational lecture 2
Pathology HPV related cancer

9:00~9:20

Co-Chairs: Akira Tanaka
(Jichi Medical University, Japan)
Young-Tak Kim
(University of Ulsan, Asan Medical Center, Korea)

EL2 Cervical adenocarcinoma: Human papillomavirus (HPV) related and non-related
Takako Kiyokawa
(Department of Pathology, The Jikei University School of Medicine, Japan)

Educational lecture 3 and 4
CIN management and colposcopy

9:20~10:05

Co-Chairs: Jeffery Tan
(Royal Women's Hospital, Australia)
Masaru Sakamoto
(Sasaki Foundation Kyoundo Hospital, The Jikei University School of Medicine, Japan)

EL3 Detection and management of CIN in AOGIN countries
Hextan Ngan
(Department of Obstetrics & Gynaecology, University of Hong Kong, Queen Mary Hospital, Hong Kong, SAR, China)

EL4 Colposcopy training in the UK
Hitoshi Kurata
(The Whittington Hospital, UK/Japan Green Medical Centre, Japan)
Discussion

Coffee Break

10:05~10:20

Educational lecture 5 and 6

Topics of cervical cancer therapy

10:20~11:00

Co-Chairs: Tang-Yuan Chu
(Center for Prevention of Gynecological Cancer, Tzu Chi Medical Center, Institute of Medical Sciences, Tzu Chi University, Taiwan, ROC)

Kazunori Nagasaka
(Teikyo University, Japan)

EL5 IGF-IR in the carcinogenesis of cervical cancer, candidate as a molecular target therapy

Atsushi Hongo
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology 2, Kawasaki Medical School, Japan)

EL6 Minimally Invasive Surgery for Cervical Cancer

Young-Tak Kim
(University of Ulsan, Asan Medical Center, Seoul, Korea)

Discussion

Oral session 6

Cervix, vagina, vulva and STI

11:00~11:50

Co-Chairs: Takako Kiyokawa
(Department of Pathology, The Jikei University School of Medicine, Japan)

Annie N.Y. Cheung
(Department of Pathology, The University of Hong Kong, Queen Mary Hospital, Hong Kong)

O-26 Crosswalking Asian guidelines on the management of vaginal discharge and the management of STI

Jeff Andrews
(BD-Becton Dickinson, Sparks, USA)

O-27 Tenofvir-induced acute kidney injury in HIV-infected pregnant woman

Stella Kawilarang
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Faculty of Medicine Universitas Udayana, Sanglah General Hospital Bali, Indonesia)

O-28 Vaginal and vulvar intra-epithelial Neoplasia in young women

Suzanne M. Garland
(Department of Microbiology Infectious Diseases, The Royal Women's Hospital, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, University of Melbourne, Australia)

O-29 A new ablation therapy using liquid phenol for cervical and vaginal intraepithelial lesions

Toshiyuki Sasagawa

(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Kanazawa Medical University, Japan)

O-30 Improving surgical outcome by using reconstructive approach after vulvectomy for cancer vulva

Arun Kumar Singh

(Department of Plastic Surgery, KG Medical University, India)

Luncheon seminar 2

Co-sponsored by Becton, Dickinson and Company

12:00~13:00

Chair:

Etsuko Miyagi

(Yokohama City University Hospital, Japan)

LS2-1 HPV cotesting and cervical cancer screening

Edward J. Mayeaux

(University of South Carolina School of Medicine, USA)

LS2-2 The intrinsic power of genotyping for risk stratifying woman screened for cervical cancer

Mark H. Stoler

(Department of Pathology, University of Virginia, USA)

WACC (women against cervical cancer)

13:00~14:20

Co-Chairs:

Masaki Fujimura

(Tokyo Medical University Ibaraki Medical Center, Japan)

Hextan Ngan

(Department of Obstetrics & Gynaecology, University of Hong Kong, Queen Mary Hospital, Hong Kong, SAR, China)

WA-1 Cervical cancer prevention activities in Hong Kong

Karen Chan

(University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong)

WA-2 Women against cervical cancer: Activities in Korea

Yong Beom Kim

(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Seoul National University Bundang Hospital, Korea)

WA-3 Indonesia's strategy in reducing cervical cancer

Dwiana Ocviyanti

(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology Faculty of Medicine Universitas Indonesia, Indonesia)

WA-4 Outcomes for girls without HPV vaccination in Japan

Satoshi Nakagawa
(Osaka University Hospital, Japan)

WA-5 Current status and future perspectives on cervical cancer prevention in Japan

Etsuko Miyagi
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Yokohama City University School of Medicine, Japan)

Discussion

Coffee Break

14:20~14:40

WorkshopHPV test self-sampling

14:40~15:50

Chair: Suzanne M. Garland
(The University of Melbourne, Australia)

WS-1 The challenge of improving the coverage of cervical cancer screening using self-sampling HPV test in Japan

Mari Itoh
(The University of Tokyo, Japan)

WS-2 Can HPV self-sampling help increase cervical cancer screening uptake in Japan: The evidence to date

Sharon J.B. Hanley
(Department of Women's Health Medicine, Hokkaido University Graduate School of Medicine, Japan)

WS-3 Validity of self-sampling human papillomavirus testing in Japanese women with abnormal cervical cytology

Etsuko Miyagi
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Yokohama City University Hospital, Japan)

Discussion

Oral session 7 HPV vaccine

15:50~16:20

Co-Chairs: Atsushi Hongo
 (Kawasaki Medical School, Japan)
 Takayuki Enomoto
 (Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Niigata University Medical School, Japan)

- O-31 Effects of national human papillomavirus vaccination program in Japan
 Manako Yamaguchi
 (Niigata University, Japan)
- O-32 Effectiveness, immunogenicity, and safety of gardasil™ in pre-adolescents and adolescents-10 years of follow-up
 Suzanne M. Garland
 (The Royal Women's Hospital, University of Melbourne, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Australia)
- O-33 Long-term effectiveness of gardasil™ among adult women in Colombia
 Suzanne M. Garland
 (The Royal Women's Hospital, University of Melbourne, Murdoch Childrens Research Institute, Australia)

Sponsored seminar 3

Co-sponsored by Zilico Limited

16:20~16:50

Chair: Jeffery Tan
 (Royal Women's Hospital, Australia)

- SS3 Primary HPV Screening and the Impact of ZedScan on Patient Management
 John Tidy
 (Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, UK)

Symposium 4

Challenges of cervical cancer prevention

17:00~18:00

Co-Chairs: Ryo Konno
(Jichi Medical University Saitama Medical Center, Japan)
Efren J. Domingo
(University of the Philippines-Philippine General Hospital, Philippines)

SY4-1 Can the success of cervical cancer prevention be copied in other cancers-- Ovarian high-grade serous carcinoma as an example

Tang-Yuan Chu
(Center for Prevention of Gynecological Cancer, Tzu Chi Medical Center, Institute of Medical Sciences, Tzu Chi University, Taiwan, ROC)

SY4-2 Challenges and perspectives of cervical cancer prevention (on behalf of AOGIN)

Efren J. Domingo
(University of the Philippines- College of Medicine Philippine General Hospital, Philippines)

SY4-3 Challenges and perspectives of cervical cancer prevention: The Japanese situation

Catherine Sauvaget
(Screening Group, Prevention and Early Detection Section, International Agency for Research on Cancer, World Health Organization, Lyon, France)

The Best Award and Closing

18:00~18:30

Ryo Konno
(Jichi Medical University Saitama Medical Center, Japan)

Room 2 (503BC)

New diagnostic tool

9:00~9:20

Co-Chairs: Wisit Supakrapongkul
 (National Cancer Institute of Thailand and Bumrungrad International Hospital, Thailand)
 Tetsuji Kurokawa
 (Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, University of Fukui, Japan)

O-16 PET-CT vs. contrast CT in detecting residual disease following neo-adjuvant chemotherapy in ovarian cancer

Elaine Y P Lee

(Department of Diagnostic Radiology, Queen Mary Hospital, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong / Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Queen Mary Hospital, The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong)

O-17 Texture analysis of diffusion-weighted and T2-weighted MRI and associations with nodal metastatic status in patients with cervical cancer

Jose A Peruchó

(The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong)

Symposium 3
Topics of head and neck cancer

9:20~10:05

Co-Chairs: Katsunari Yane
 (Kindai University Nara Hospital, Japan)
 Annie N.Y. Cheung
 (Department of Pathology, The University of Hong Kong, Queen Mary Hospital, Hong Kong)

SY3-1 Multimodal treatment for HPV related oropharyngeal cancer - Report from Japanese cooperative study group for basic research in head and neck cancer

Masato Fujii

(Center of Head and Neck Tumor Department of Otolaryngology, Eiju General Hospital, Japan)

SY3-2 The management of HPV-related oropharyngeal cancer—Clinical features and treatment strategy—

Hisayuki Kato

(Fujita Health University School of Medicine, Japan)

- SY3-3 Confirmation of the 8th edition of the AJCC/UICC TNM staging system for HPV-mediated oropharyngeal cancer in Japan
Takatsugu Mizumachi
(Department of Otolaryngology- Head and Neck Surgery, Faculty of Medicine and Graduate School of Medicine, Hokkaido University, Japan)

Oral session 5
Colposcopy and CIN

10:30~11:50

- Co-Chairs: Jong Sup Park
(Catholic University Medical College, Korea)
Kimio Ushijima
(Kurume University School of Medicine, Japan)
Masanori Yasuda
(Saitama Medical University International Medical Center, Japan)

- O-18 Evidence for clinical application of extended HPV genotyping in persistence tracking and test-of-cure: A systematic review
Jeff Andrews
(BD-Becton Dickinson, Sparks, USA)
- O-19 Whole-genome analysis of HPV52/58 isolated from Japanese women with cervical intraepithelial neoplasia and invasive cervical cancer
Iwao Kukimoto
(Pathogen Genomics Center, National Institute of Infectious Diseases, Japan)
- O-20 If persistent HPV infection causes disease, why are we not measuring it?
Jeff Andrews
(BD-Becton Dickinson, Sparks, USA)
- O-21 The relationship between age and pathological regression in the excised cervix specimen by a loop electrosurgical excision procedure (LEEP) in the treatment of CIN2
Lu Jiang
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Peking University First Hospital, China)
- O-22 The distribution of squamous intraepithelial lesion (SIL) in the cervix of uterine
Tong Xie
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Peking University First Hospital, China)
- O-23 Patients with high grade squamous intraepithelial lesion are at higher risk of developing skip lesion than those with low grade lesion
Fangda Leng
(Peking University First Hospital, China)
- O-24 Carbon dioxide laser vaporization for high grade CIN: Treatment efficacy and risk factors of recurrence
Kouichiro Kawano
(Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology Kurume University, School of Medicine, Japan)

O-25

Implementation of screen and treat (VIA & CRYO) programme in the state of up, India- A 2 year experience

Uma Singh

(KG Medical University, India)

October 19 (Thurs)

Room: Poster/Exhibition (503A)

Poster Session

- P-1 Spontaneous uterine perforation and sepsis due to pyometra complicated by choriocarcinoma: A case report
Murthy Mutmainah
(Association of Obstetric and Gynecology of Indonesia, Indonesia / Faculty of Medicine, Universty of Indonesia, Indonesia)
